

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
2022 ANNUAL COMMUNITY AWARDS NOMINATION FORM
(Awards presented at the January 31, 2023, Banquet)
DUE: January 13, 2023

CRITERIA FOR NOMINATIONS:

To nominate a person for a Community Award you must complete the information listed below and present a typed or legibly written letter of nomination listing the qualifying reasons why that person should be selected to receive that particular award. Winners of all awards are based on their qualification as presented by the nominating person and not by the number of nominations received. Selection of the winners will be by a non-partisan committee selected from the community. Llano Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors are not eligible for receiving an award.

This form and letter of nomination must be received by the Chamber no later than Friday, January 13, 2023. The 3 selected nominees in each category will receive a ticket to the banquet free of charge.

 General Criteria – Business of the Year
Any community member may nominate a business for recognition (including their own business), and only Chamber Member businesses are eligible for recognition (including the “New Business of the Year” award). Nominees should be those whose business practices and professional conduct contribute to a sense of cooperation within the entire business community, and which helps promote Llano and the Llano County area as a good place to live as well as do business. Companies must be a member of the Llano Chamber of Commerce at time award is presented. Businesses that have a representative on the Llano Chamber Board of Directors as of December 31, 2021, are not eligible to receive the award. Entries will be reviewed by the Llano Chamber of Commerce combined with an independent panel of judges.
